corporate purposes, and to engage in any activity "in furtherance of, incidental to, or connected with any of the other purposes."

Goals of the Corporation

The Goals of this Corporation shall be:

- 1) To promote and maintain high standards of health care for the elderly and to advance the quality of episodic and long term institutional and non-institutional care.
- 2) To assist in the education of medical students and physicians and allied health care professionals in issues of particular concern regarding the elderly.
- 3) To foster professional and public awareness concerning issues in geriatric medicine.
- 4) To encourage and promote research in the broad field of geriatrics and gerontology.
- 5) To serve as a forum for discussion of issues pertaining to geriatric medicine by healthcare professionals.
- 6) To act as a resource to professional and lay organizations, government agencies, and community programs in the area of the elderly.
- 7) To foster the above objectives in cooperation with other professional societies and interested groups regarding issues in geriatrics.

Article III

Membership and Dues

Membership in this corporation shall be open to any individual interested in the objectives and activities of the Corporation. Each candidate for membership must be approved by a majority vote of the Board of Directors. The membership of the Corporation shall be divided into the following categories:

Section 1. Regular Members. Open to physicians, dentists, researchers whose work emphasizes the practice of geriatric medicine, gerontologists, psychologists, advanced practice nurses, physician assistants, nurses, social workers, dietitians, pharmacists and other allied health professionals.

Section 2. Student Affiliate Members. Open to interns, residents, fellows-in-training, full-time medical students and other allied health professional students, and the general population of interested lay persons.
